

FIVE HEAVENLY SPOTS FOR A BABYMOON

It's so exciting to be pregnant for the first time — and also a little bit overwhelming. Why not plan the perfect getaway with these ideas for a babymoon? Taking a babymoon has grown in popularity over the last decade and is practically a rite of passage for expecting parents these days. Parents-to-be take one last vacation before baby or a vacation soon after the birth of the baby, similar to a honeymoon. Ideas for a babymoon are endless and can range from the exotic to the adventurous to the truly luxurious. Here are some suggestions:

...

MEXICO: CASA VELAS, PUERTO VALLARTA

At Casa Velas in Puerto Vallarta, the new Babymoon Package features spa treatments, healthy dining options and more. Parents-to-be will also be able to participate in a private photo shoot and receive a family album to take home from baby's first vacation. The babymoon also includes a body cream set for moms, a book of baby names and a healthy meal for the flight home. Nightly rates for the Babymoon Package, which include accommodations in a Grand Class Suite, a la carte gourmet dining, 24-hour in-suite service, roundtrip VIP airport transportation, as well as all taxes and gratuities, start at $295 per person, per night (double). There is a minimum three-night stay required. www.hotelcasavelas.com

...

<http://latinamadre.com/639/babymoons/3/>